MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

1. This memorandum is for information only.
2. Attention is invited to the attached UPI 103, in which Symington refers to the DCI in questioning Secretary Gates.
3. It hasn't appeared yet on the ticker, but I understand the JCS cleared for Gates last night a statement to the effect that last year's Intelligence Estimates, which covered operational ICBMs, etc, considered what the USSR would have if they proceeded in an ordinary program as compared to what they would have in ICBMs if they went into a crash program and the conclusion was reached that the USSR is not in any crash program to produce ICBMs.

ADD 3 ~~Approved~~ For Release 2002/10/30 : CIA-RDP80B01676R000900030055-2

JOHNSON AND SEN. STUART SYMINGTON (D-MO.) FIRED QUESTIONS AT GATES. THE SECRETARY TOLD JOHNSON THAT IT WOULD BE "A QUESTION FOR THE PRESIDENT TO DECIDE" AS TO WHETHER THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT WOULD SEND ADDITIONAL MONEY FOR SPECIFIC WEAPONS IF CONGRESS PROVIDES IT. GATES SAID HE WAS SURE NEITHER CONGRESS NOR THE ADMINISTRATION WOULD HESITATE TO SPEND ADDITIONAL FUNDS IF REQUIRED.

GATES ALSO TOLD JOHNSON THAT HE IS IN JOHNSON'S WORD, "CONTEMPLATING" THE EXPENDITURE OF MORE FUNDS FOR LONG-RANGE MISSILES AND POLARIS SUBMARINES. BUT HE SAID HE WAS "REVIEWING" THE QUESTION AND IS "NOT IN A POSITION TO PROPOSE IT" YET.

SYMINGTON, PREFACING HIS QUESTIONS WITH THE STATEMENT THAT CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTOR ALLEN W. DULLES PRESENTED "THE REVERSE" OF A NARROWING MISSILE GAP, AGAIN TRIED TO GET RATIOS ON MISSILE STRENGTH FROM GATES.

GATES AGAIN DECLINED AND SAID, "I THINK THAT THE RATIOS ARE ALL MISLEADING, AND I DON'T KNOW HOW TO ANNOUNCE THEM IN A WAY THAT WOULD NOT ADD TO THE CONFUSION."

GATES ALSO TOLD SEN. E. L. BARTLETT (D-ALASKA) THAT THE DECISION TO DELAY THE B-70 DEVELOPMENT WAS "VERY DIFFICULT." IN AN EARLIER DISCUSSION OF THE DELAY IN THE B-70 PROGRAM, SYMINGTON HAD SAID HE COULDN'T SEE HOW THE RELATIVE LOW-SPEED POLARIS SUBMARINE SHOULD BE CONTINUED AND THE B-70 SPEEDING "MANY THOUSANDS OF MILES AN HOUR" SHOULD BE JUNKED.

GATES SAID HE THOUGHT SYMINGTON WAS COMPARING APPLES AND ORANGES. WHEN ASKED WHY THE NAVY'S ORIGINAL PROPOSAL FOR NINE POLARIS SUBMARINES THIS YEAR HAD BEEN REDUCED TO THREE, GATES EXPLAINED THAT THE U.S. HAS ALREADY "BET" $3,700,000,000 ON THE POLARIS, THAT IS ENOUGH, HE SAID, UNTIL PERFORMANCE GENERATES NEW "CONFIDENCE" ABOUT THE SYSTEM.
